Any withdrawal or closure of the Account shall not affect the validity of any statutory or consensual liens created by any or all joint owners to the Account or assets thereof or to any other related accounts of your assets. The right or authority of the Credit Union under this agreement to deal with any owner shall not be changed or terminated by any owner except by written notice to said Credit Union which shall not be effective until the Credit Union agrees to the change or termination. You agree with each other that if any of you cause the Credit Union financial loss which we cannot recover, all services, privileges and dividends can be terminated. The Credit Union reserves the right to terminate the Account if par value of one (1) share is not maintained for two months. The parties signing this Agreement (hereafter "You" or "Your") hereby authorize MAX Credit Union (hereafter "Credit Union", "We" or "Us") to establish this Share Draft Account (hereafter "Account"). You agree that you have read and agree to the terms and conditions of the Account.

SHARE DRAFT ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

SHARE DRAFT ACCOUNT: The Credit Union is authorized to pay any share draft signed by any of you and to charge all such payments against the shares in this Account. The Credit Union is authorized to order personalized drafts (checks) on your behalf. The cost of said drafts may vary from time to time without notice and be deducted form the Account. This authorization covers the initial order of drafts and all subsequent orders. Only share draft blanks and other methods approved by the Credit Union may be used to withdraw funds from the Account. The Credit Union shall have the right to require 7 days notice of the intent to make a withdrawal from this Account.

DIVIDENDS: Dividends, if declared on this type of account, shall be payable on the balance of this Account at the rate and in the same manner prescribed by the Board of Directors of the Credit Union. Any specified dividend rate may result in a lower effective yield based upon either account activity or the actual amount of shares on which the dividends will be paid.

FEES: You agree that fees on this Account shall be charged in accordance with the Truth-In-Savings disclosure provided to you, as it may later be amended, and said fee schedule is hereby incorporated as part of this Agreement. You agree to pay all such fees if you use the Account after the effective date of the amendment or if the Account is not closed prior to the effective date of the amendment.

PAYMENT: You authorize us to accept and pay any share draft, even if the share draft is presented for payment before its date, unless you notify the Credit Union of the postdating. Your notice will be effective only if the Credit Union receives the notice in time for the Credit Union to notify its employees and reasonably act upon the notice (at least 1 business day) and you accurately describe the check, including the number, date, and amount. If a share draft is presented for payment and the amount of such share draft exceeds the fully paid and collected share balance in this Account, the Credit Union may assess an overdraft fee against you. The Credit Union shall incur no liability (except for its lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care) for any action regarding the payment or nonpayment of a share draft regardless of whether you have a share balance in this Account sufficient to pay any share draft. In the event the Credit Union pays a share draft drawn on this Account, the Credit Union may charge this Account the amount of such share draft, even if the share draft is presented more than six months after its date.

DEPOSITS: All non-cash items credited to this Account shall be credited conditionally subject to final payment and such items may be charged back, at any time, until the proceeds thereof in money (U.S. Dollars) are received by the Credit Union. The Credit Union has the right to decline payment or to delay payment of any share draft drawn against such credits. The Credit Union shall not be obligated to notify you that a non-cash item has been dishonored or not otherwise collected. Any amount not collected may be charged back to the Account, including any expense incurred in the collection of a deposited item. If you do not comply with the terms of this Agreement and we refer the matter to an attorney, you agree to pay any court costs and a reasonable attorney's fee.

ACCOUNT STATEMENTS: You will be sent a periodic statement of all transactions and activity on the Account during the statement period. You are responsible for examining each statement and reporting any irregularities to the Credit Union. You agree that this statement is sufficient if it provides the item number, amount and date of payment. The Credit Union will not be liable for any forged or altered items drawn on or deposited to the Account unless you give written notice to the Credit Union of the forgery or alteration within thirty (30) days of the statement being mailed or delivered to you. You agree that any other objection regarding errors or other objection to the Account statement shall be waived unless made in writing to the Credit Union before the 30th day following the day the statement is mailed or delivered to you. The Credit Union will not be liable for items forged or altered in a manner not detectable by the Credit Union through reasonable means.

SHARE DRAFTS: You understand that your original drafts will not be returned to you. The Credit Union will provide a copy of any paid share draft charged to this Account upon receiving a written request from you. The Credit Union may charge this Account for this service in accordance with the fees established by the Board of Directors. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or alter the time limits for notifying the Credit Union of forgery, alteration, error or other objections.

ENDORSEMENT: You agree to indemnify the Credit Union from any loss due to an endorsement or other writing being placed on the share draft in an incorrect manner or place (under the Federal Reserve's Regulation CC or otherwise) before it is accepted for deposit by the Credit Union. If the Account is a joint account, each of you appoint the other his attorney with power to deposit in this Account funds of the other and for that purpose to endorse any instrument payable to the other or to both of you jointly. The Credit Union has the right to supply any missing endorsement, but is not required to do so. The Credit Union will only be responsible for recognizing the identification of the Account, the amount of the draft, and the information contained in the magnetic coding of the draft. The Credit Union will not be responsible for recognizing any other information on the draft, including conditions of payment. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on third party checks presented for deposit either in person or by comparison with member signature files. If an insurance, government or other check or draft requires another party's endorsement, the Credit Union may require that party's endorsement.

RETURNED ITEMS: If any item deposited in the Account is returned unpaid, each of you is jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item and any other charges, regardless of who deposited or cashed the item or benefited from the transaction. If any joint owner is indebted to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the Account regardless of who contributed the funds to the Account.

STOP PAYMENTS: You may issue a stop payment order on share drafts from the Account which the Credit Union shall honor to the extent that there is reasonable time (which shall not be less than 2 business days) to honor the order. The stop payment order must be in writing and shall remain in force for 6 months unless terminated by the person who gave the stop payment order. You agree that unless you give the correct account number, share draft amount, and share draft number, the Credit Union assumes no responsibility for stopping payment. If the Credit Union credits your Account after paying an item over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to assist the Credit Union if it takes legal action upon the item. You agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Credit Union against all claims, costs, attorney's fees, damages, and other expenses or losses which may be incurred by the Credit Union, its employees, or agents on account of a stop payment order.

SECURITY: You agree and acknowledge that the Credit Union has a statutory lien in all shares and dividends held in any accounts(s) from which you may make withdrawals (except IRA, SEP, KEOGH, or any other accounts which, if the statutory lien is exercised, would result in your loss of special tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code) in the event of a failure to satisfy any outstanding financial obligation due and payable to the Credit Union, and the Credit Union may exercise this statutory lien without any further notice to a member.

JOINT ACCOUNTS: When more than one person signs this Agreement, the Account created will be a joint ownership Account with the right of survivorship. If there are two or more remaining Account owners when one owner dies, the remaining owners will hold the Account as joint owners with the right of survivorship. Payment to any of you shall discharge the Credit Union from any liability for payment.

TERMINATION: The right or authority of the Credit Union under this agreement to deal with any owner shall not be changed or terminated by any owner except by written notice to the Credit Union which shall not be effective until the Credit Union agrees to the change or termination. Any such change or termination shall not affect transactions theretofore made. All unused share drafts must be surrendered at time of termination by the member. If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between Account owners, the Credit Union may require that all owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the Account or require a court order to act. The Credit Union has the right to terminate the Account and all of its liability hereunder by mailing a check or draft for the balance of the Account to the address of any one of you.

DEATH OR INCAPACITY: You agree the Credit Union may pay a share draft after the death or incapacity of any owner of this Account unless the Credit Union has knowledge of the owner's death or incapacity and has had a reasonable opportunity, which shall be at least two (2) business days to act upon the knowledge.

NOTICE AND WAIVER: You agree that notice to any one of you shall constitute notice to all of you. All required written notices to the Credit Union shall become effective when actually received by the Credit Union. The Credit Union may waive or delay enforcing any of its rights under this agreement without losing the right to enforce such rights in the future.

AMENDMENTS: The Credit Union may amend this Agreement from time to time by sending you any advance written notice required by law. Your use of the Account or any service hereunder will indicate your agreement to the amendments. Any modification of this Agreement by you shall be binding only if agreed to in writing by the Credit Union. This Account is subject to such other items, conditions, rules, and requirements as the Board of Directors of the Credit Union may establish.

GOVERNING LAW: The interpretation and construction of this Agreement shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Alabama. The illegality of any particular provision of the Agreement shall not affect the validity of any other provision.
